Chrysomelidae

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a manuscript. The text is written in a single column and appears to be a continuous passage. The script is dense and flowing, characteristic of historical cursive handwriting. There are several lines of text, with some words or phrases appearing to be underlined or written in a slightly different style, possibly indicating a title or a specific section. The paper is aged and shows signs of wear, including discoloration and some small holes or damage.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a manuscript. The text is written in a single column and appears to be a continuous passage. The script is dense and flowing, characteristic of historical cursive handwriting. The paper is aged and shows signs of wear, including discoloration and some small holes or damage. The text is written in a dark ink, possibly iron gall or a similar historical pigment. The overall appearance is that of a historical document or a page from an old book.
